Re: Christine Dougherty v. AMCO Insurance Company et al.
Case no.: C 07-01140 MHP

Dear Judge Patel:

We received the Court's Minute Order following our telephone conference with counsel on Tuesday, April 8. After reviewing the Minute Order, we prepared a proposed form of order that provided more detail concerning the Court's several rulings to attempt to avoid any potential misunderstandings between counsel as to the rulings of the Court. We submitted the proposed form of that order to Ms. Dougherty's counsel for review and comment or to approve as to form. We enclose a copy of that letter and the proposed form of order with this letter.

We received from Ms. Dougherty's counsel the enclosed letter advising that he believes the proposed order is unnecessary and he therefore declined to approve it as to form.

We therefore are submitting the proposed order for the Court's consideration. Again, in an effort to avoid future misunderstandings between counsel regarding the scope of the Court's rulings, the proposed order provides additional detail that we believe accurately reflects the Court's rulings.
